WHERE TO

SET DIRECTIONS FOR HOME SWEET HOME

Buying a home is an emotional journey. After all, you’re not just buying a house; you’re investing in family dinners, lazy Sunday mornings in bed and a yard built for a backyard barbecue on sunny summer afternoons. (Or at least, that’s the idea.)

It’s true that a home is where families are raised and memories are made, but the priceless joys of owning a home aren’t really priceless at all. The last thing you want is to get in over your head with a mortgage payment you can’t comfortably afford. However, you don’t want to buy a home that doesn’t comfortably suit your family’s needs as well.

No pressure, right?

In all seriousness, buying a home doesn’t have to be scary. But it should be approached with a level head, a clear list of priorities, realistic expectations and a whole lot of research.

Read on to discover everything you need to know about finding, buying and financing a place you’ll love – with a payment you can afford.

TIPS FOR HOUSE HUNTING

HONE IN ON YOUR DREAM HOME

Finding a home that meets your needs – at the right price, and in the right location – can be a bit like finding a needle in a haystack unless you have a large budget or are incredibly flexible in what you’re looking for. Many home buyers look forward to the house-hunting process, and then become discouraged when they actually start touring houses.

Keep in mind that almost all home buyers end up having to compromise on something, so don’t be disappointed if you can’t seem to find your “perfect dream home.” Try to think logically – rather than emotionally – about the house-hunting process, and factor some of our recommended guidelines into your decision.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION!

Almost anything about a house can be changed – except where it’s located. That’s why it’s so important to take a home’s location into consideration during your house hunt. You’ll likely want a home that’s within a reasonable distance of where you work, if possible. And do some research about the area’s crime rates and schools, too. These are additional factors that can play a huge role in how happy you are with your purchase.

THINK ABOUT YOUR FUTURE NEEDS

Homeowners should generally plan to stay in their homes for at least four or five years to break even on closing costs and other fees. So if you have immediate plans to start a family, purchasing a one-bedroom downtown loft probably isn’t your best option. Instead, consider how your family or lifestyle may change in the next few years, and strive to purchase a home that can accommodate your future needs.

IS IT A WANT OR A NEED?

Sure, you may want a kitchen with granite countertops and stainless steel appliances, but don’t let that take precedence over your needs. Prioritize and try to figure out what you absolutely must have in a home, and what you can live without. Make a list and rank your needs so when you find a home you like, you can make a confident and informed decision about its ability to truly make you happy for the long haul.

FOCUS ON FUNCTION

When touring a home, it can be easy to get pulled in by the house’s curb appeal or “cuteness” factor. But try to focus on how the home will function when living there. Is there an entryway closet to stash shoes, coats and other gear? Is there enough garage space to house your vehicles? Does the home have laundry facilities that are easily accessible? These are issues that you might not think about when doing a quick walk-through of a home, but the absence of such features can become a huge source of annoyance once you move in. (And don’t make the mistake of thinking your love for a home’s aesthetics will make up for its lack of function!)

FACTOR RESALE VALUE INTO THE EQUATION

Few people make their first or second home their forever home, so it’s a good idea to consider a home’s resale value when making your decision. Location and school districts both play significant roles in a home’s resale value – so even if you don’t have kids, buying a home in a good school district may still be worth your while. Also, think twice before buying a unique, out-of-the-box home. Highly-customized properties usually don’t appeal to the masses, so you might have a difficult time finding a buyer when it comes time to sell.

KNOW YOUR LIFESTYLE – AND BUY ACCORDINGLY

You may think you want a five-bedroom home with an acre yard – but if you value a low-maintenance lifestyle, a condo or townhome could potentially be a better fit. And think about what’s on the outside of the home, too. Do you enjoy being able to walk to restaurants and shops? Or are you hoping to escape the hustle and bustle of city life? Your home can greatly influence your lifestyle, so make sure it aligns with your everyday life.

CONSIDER LONG-TERM COSTS

Most buyers gauge a home’s affordability based solely on its list price but, some houses come with more expenses than others – those extra costs can add up over time. If you purchase a condo, townhome, or a house in a neighborhood with a Homeowners Association (HOA) – be prepared for monthly fees. If you purchase a home that needs a significant amount of work, think about those costs, too. It’s even a good idea to consider a home’s size, as heating and cooling larger homes requires higher costs than smaller or more modestly-sized houses. Do the math and ensure you can afford the extra expenses that may come with the home before making an offer.

MAKE YOUR “DREAM HOME” A REALITY

NEIGHBORHOOD

WISH LIST

To help you identify your ideal neighborhood when searching for a new home, we’ve put together some things to keep in mind. From highly rated schools to downtown nightlife, the “perfect” neighborhood is as unique as you!

COMMUTE TO WORK/SCHOOL

Make sure your commute is within your expectations so you can spend as much time as possible at your new home!

SCHOOL RATINGS

If it's important to you, look online for tools to check how the nearby school systems are rated.

WALKABILITY SCORE

Websites such as walkscore.com can give you information on how walkable/bikeable an area is.

NEARBY GROCERY STORES

See where you'll be able to stock up your pantry or grab some fresh, local produce in the area.

NEARBY RESTAURANTS/CAFES

For the meals you don't cook at home, check out which options there are for dining in, takeout, or delivery.

NEARBY PARKS & TRAILS

Map out your options for hiking, biking, dogwalking, or any outdoor activities you enjoy doing.

LOCAL RESTRICTIONS

Ask your real estate agent or look online for any restrictions enforced by an Homeowners Association (HOA), the city, the county, etc.

NEIGHBORHOOD PRIVACY

Do you prefer a gated community or being right in the heart of the action? Your privacy is great to keep in mind.

HIGHWAY ACCESS

If you travel frequently, nearby highway access can have a major impact on your daily routine.

NEARBY ACTIVITIES

Concert venues, movie theaters, golf courses, and more can really impact how well an area fits your lifestyle.

NEIGHBORHOOD AMENITIES

Proximity to local gyms, restaurants, markets, coffee shops, schools, etc. may all be up for consideration.

COMMUNICATION PROVIDERS

The speed and reliability of available communication providers (internet, cell, etc.) in the area is something to keep in mind.

ASSOCIATION DUES

Does the price of ongoing dues justify the perks that come with it? Make sure to know these costs up front.

NEARBY HOSPITAL/PHARMACY

In an emergency, timing can make all the difference. Know your quickest route to a medical professional.

NEIGHBORHOOD CULTURE

Do you want to be in a quiet, more laid back neighborhood or is an active downtown more your scene?

HOME INSPECTION

Whether you’re reviewing a home online, looking at a listing sheet while touring a potential home, or have already made an offer and are waiting on an inspection, be sure to get answers to all of your questions before committing to buy the home! Here are a few to get you started:

PROPERTY ADDRESS _____ DATE OF VISIT _____

QUESTION	ANSWER
How old are the roof and windows? How many years should they have left before they need to be replaced?
Are there any signs of current or previous water damage?
How old is the plumbing and wiring? Do they meet current codes? Will I be required to bring them up to code if I want to do any home remodeling?
When was the last time the septic tank was pumped and the well checked (if the property has either)?
Is there an electric garage door installed? Will my vehicles fit in the garage?
What is the potential for resale with this home/ within this neighborhood?
What did the house last sell for? What improvements have been completed since the house sold at that price?
How long has the home been on the market this time? Have the current owners placed the home for sale previously?
Are there any issues with the foundation or basement?
Can I get a copy of the average utility costs?
What are the annual property taxes?
Are there any reported issues with the home? Are there any known repairs needed or suspected?
Will this home require flood insurance or any additional considerations?
What are the neighbors like? What are the pros and cons of this neighborhood?
When do the sellers plan to move?

If you see something that looks a little off or is confusing, ask about it! Your real estate agent is working for you and they want what’s best for you. Be confident in your right to know everything you want and need to know about a home. Not only are you making a big investment, but you also want the house to feel like your home.

DOs & DON'Ts OF THE LOAN PROCESS

THINGS YOU SHOULD DO WHEN BUYING A HOME

MEET WITH CU LOAN OFFICER EARLY IN THE PROCESS

- Get Pre-Qualified to explore your options and find the perfect home.
- Pay your bills on time!
- Make sure the Sales Price and Down Payment you had in mind match that of your Pre-Qualification.
- Inform your loan officer if ANYTHING changes in your situation, even if you don't think it's important.
- Immediately let your loan officer know if anything changes on your agreement to purchase.
- Check your email regularly and stay in touch!

ORGANIZE YOUR FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS*

- Current paystubs (30 days) and W-2's for the past two (2) years.
- If self-employed or you receive income outside of a W-2, be prepared to provide all schedules of the most recently filed Federal Tax Return.
- Bank statements – all pages. Cannot be just a screenshot; it must be an actual statement.
- Spousal and child support – fully executed agreements.
- Shop for your Homeowners Insurance, budget to pay for 1 year in advance.
- Hang on to every deposit slip, check stub, refund check, bank statement, receipt of payment, etc.

*In the mortgage lending process, financial documents have an expiration date. Don't be surprised if you have to present updated paystubs and bank statements. Any new or inconsistent information will have to be explained.

THINGS YOU SHOULD NOT DO WHEN BUYING A HOME

DO NOT APPLY FOR NEW CREDIT

- Do not buy new items on credit, such as furniture, appliances, new vehicles, etc. Do not co-sign for someone else or even transfer from one credit account to another.

DO NOT CHANGE JOBS

- Generally speaking, hold off on that dream job until after closing. Verbal verification of employment is the norm. If there is a change, notify your mortgage representative right away. Otherwise this could delay your closing.

DO NOT SELL ITEMS FOR CASH

- If you sell an item for cash, you will need a bill of sale, a copy of the check and an appraisal of the item sold. Let your mortgage representative know up front if this is your intention.

DO NOT MANIPULATE YOUR MONEY

- This includes transferring funds between accounts, changing financial institutions, making large deposits outside of your normal payroll deposit, and undocumented gift funds.
- Do not open or close any bank, investment, or retirement accounts.

DO NOT SCHEDULE MOVERS OR CONTRACTORS FOR CLOSING DAY

- While every attempt is made to close the transaction on the day agreed to in the real estate contract, increasing compliance rules can delay any transaction.

We understand that unplanned and unavoidable emergencies come up. If you think that there's a chance that something may impact your mortgage process, please notify your loan officer as quickly as possible to avoid any delays!
